Hello Brothers and Sister,

Proverbs 22:6 King James Version (KJV)⁶Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

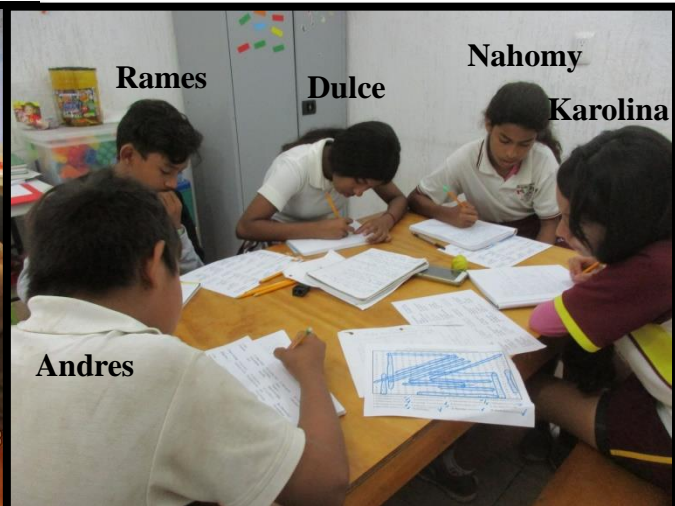

I have two new English teaching opportunities to serve our Lord Jesus. I praise God for these opportunities. The first one is with Pastor Luis at his new building at Madre Selva, which is close to the old dump in PV. In September I started teaching two English classes on Wednesday's and Friday's from 11:30 to 3:30 at the Madre Selva location. The first row of photos are of my English class for students grades 4-6 and the second row is my middle school students. Each of my classes have about 4-8 students.

The second opportunity is helping a new pastor, George Lopez, who is part of Gold Creek church, under pastor Luis. In August while I was helping pastor Luis at his main building, I met pastor George. We talked about his small church that he's been developing over the last year and about the possibility of starting English classes. At that time I was working with Pastor Germain in Ixtapa, but felt that this was a change I should make. I am thankful for the time I've spent with Pastor Germain, but I am also excited about this new challenge. I began classes at Gold Creek Copa del Rey in September on Tuesdays and Thursday's from 11:30 to 12:30. After the class, lunch is provided for the children by Hector from Madre Selva. There are so many good people involved in this outreach and I am really happy to be a part of it. English students; Angel & Lupita are both and sister, Maria helps serve the food, Maki and her mom live next to the church, César is the son of the Spanish teacher.
